Melodie: John Reading

The first system of musical notation consists of four staves. The top staff is in treble clef, the second and third are in treble clef, and the bottom is in bass clef. All staves are in the key of B major (three sharps: F#, C#, G#) and 2/4 time. The melody is played on the top staff, with accompaniment on the other three staves. The system contains seven measures.

The second system of musical notation consists of four staves, continuing the piece from the first system. It contains seven measures, including some rests in the upper staves.

The third system of musical notation consists of four staves, continuing the piece from the second system. It contains seven measures, ending with a double bar line.
